Rome Academy

The first Rome Academy was built in 1848 at 301 N. James Street as a private institution. The middle name of "Free" was added in 1870 after the new Union Free School District gained ownership of the property. The new district opened on the basis of "free education for all". The cost of the Rome Academy in 1848 was $6,208 and served the academic needs of the community until 1897. It was replaced by an $80,000 school, which opened in 1899. In the second academy, the second story was used for high school students and the lower portion, under the name of Court St. School, was mainly for the lower grades. When the present high school on Turin St. was built in 1926, the James St. School was used as a Jr. High. It was torn down in 1960 to make room for the Justice Building. RFA was remodeled in 1938 after a terrible fire and again in 1956-58 when an addition was made. Three years later, additional rooms were built. In 1998, a comittee was formed to look into building yet another new high school to accomodate the educational demands of the 21st century.

Looking Back at Rome...

Looking Forward to Looking Back is the theme of the 75th volume of the De-O-Wain-Sta yearbook. As we grow older we experience new things and look to the future, but at the same time, we will always look back fondly on our memories.

When we were children, we looked forward to growing up and being able to do more. In elementary school, we couldn't wait to be in Jr. High, and when we got there, all we wanted was to be in High School. We're here now, and we still find ourselves looking to the future. What lies ahead? College, and then what? Ten years in the future, many of us will have careers, and possibly be married with families. We will always remember our school years and the good times we took for granted. Right now, we are all caught up in the rush of our final year of high school, our Senior year. When the class of 1999 graduates in June, we will look forward to the future with enthusiasm and hope, but we will always look back on the past and remember the wonderful times we had throughout our years at R.F.A.

Heather Cucura, Editor-in-Chief '98-'99

Rome Free Academy Alma Mater

"To Thee, RFA, our allegience we bring with truth and loyalty.
As comrades we come with our minds seeking light and our spirits bold and free.
Oh, dear Alma Mater
we will honor thee more and more.
So teach us to be true to thee,
Alma Mater RFA."

The pictures on these two pages are of part of the mural on W. Dominick street. They depict what parts of W. Dominick street used to look like in the early 1900's. The mural was most likely adapted from old photographs of the street.

Things change slowly if they ever change at all

Going home for that first break from college you will notice people have changed. Mostly for the better, and seldom for the worse. People have grown up and it's not that you like them better, it's that you have more respect for them now.

In high school people were afraid to change, for fear that their friends would turn against them. In college, new friendships are made, and you become more of an individual; realizing that you only have four years to find yourself will do that to a person. You try new things and you make mistakes. It's a scary time. You're trying to get adjusted, make good grades, and have a great social life all at the same time. Not to mention trying to make friends who won't pull you down, but help you up the ladder of life. It seems like a race to see who can get there the quickest and be involved in everything at once.

It's really sad to know that when you said goodbye to your best friends on your last day home, that might have been the last time you knew the real them, or they knew the real you. Look at your old friends now. They're no longer as whiny or self-centered or obnoxious or introverted as they were before. They are caring, compassionate, understanding, outgoing, and scared, just like everyone else.

Nobody likes to lose friends, but sometimes it just happens, and sometimes it happens that you're closer than ever before. Distance really makes you think, and it makes you long to see your one best friend in person. Sometimes you can, sometimes you can't , and sometimes you just don't want to.

You never realize how close you were until you aren't anymore.
It takes two people to have a relationship, but it only takes one to end it or to hurt the other. So tell your best friends you will miss them and that they can never be replaced. Reminisce about the past and the fun times you've had. It's guaranteed to put a smile on your face.

"Make new friends, but keep the old, new is silver, the other is gold."

STUDENT LIFE

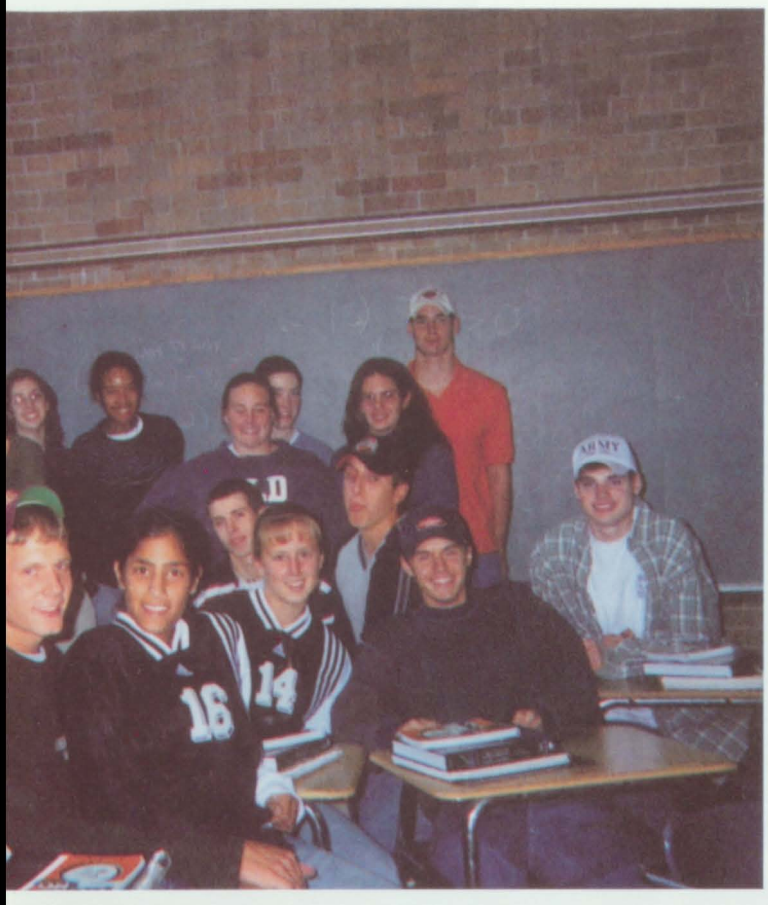
Looking

An empty hallway? The stairwells of RFA are always bustling with students. So why are senior David O'Brien, sophomore Keith Widrig, junior Kurt Loson, senior Matt Hills, senior Travis Oliver, junior Christina Raulli, and sophomore Lindsay Gualtieri able to sit and wait comfortably for the bell?

Suffering from readers block: Seniors Paal Moen, Dan Carpenter, Steve Mata, Eric Wood, and Nick Lemon just can't read anymore-their brains are full.

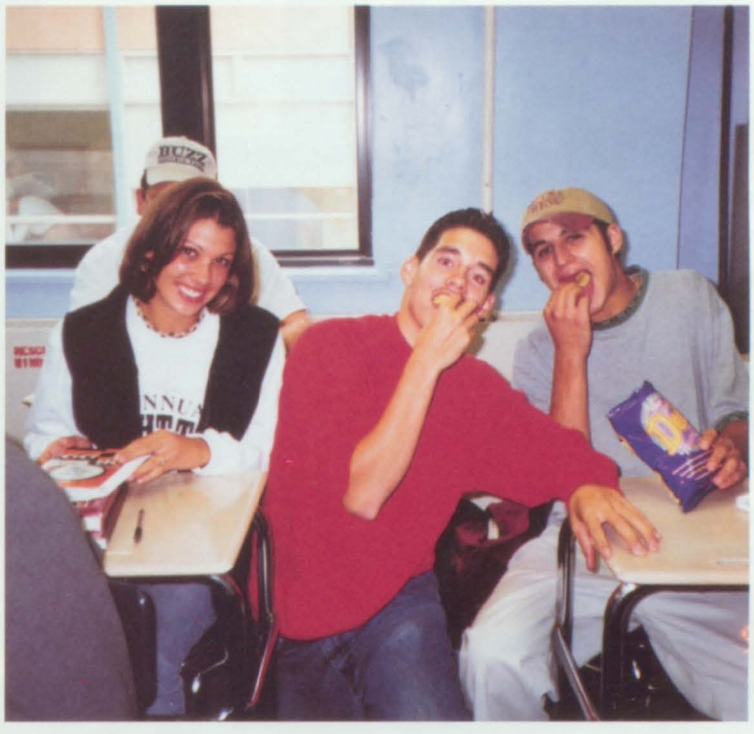
School's out! After a long day of classes, senior Jenna Kembrey can't wait to get home. Unfortunately, the vast majority of RFA's seniors like Jenna, not only need to worry about homework, but the college application process, too.

To Party



Where's Amber? Can you find senior Amber Larkin in Mrs. Hess's 8th period Calculus class?

Crunch and Munch! Seniors Wilfredo Rosario and Ryan Sgroi take advantage of their favorite few minutes of class ... snack time! Either senior Kari Surace has already had breakfast or she's been in trouble for munching before.



Best Friends ... Senior football captain Eddie Harper is obviously worn out after a long day of classes and a few hard hours of practice, but he can always count on senior Sara Carollo for a hug.

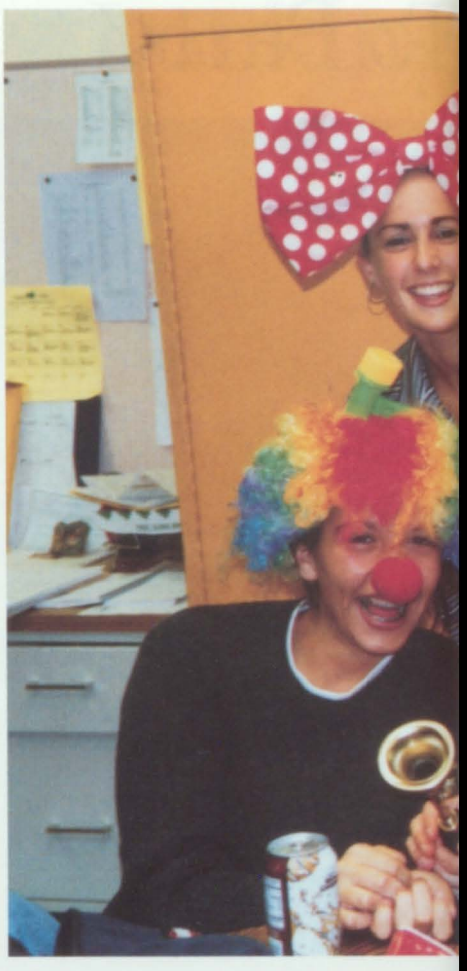
Spirit Week



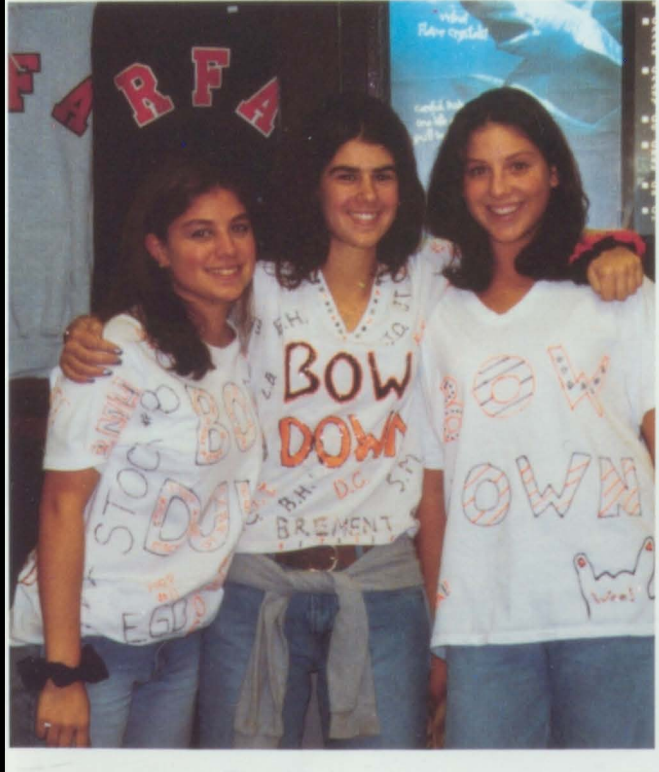
The Rome Free Academy student body is very active and involved in their school. As you can see their school spirit and pride was enthusiastically exhibited during Spirit Week. This is a week designated to get the students together to show their pride by participating in the theme events of the day. Spirit week of 1998 took place during the week of September 28- October 2. Monday was Comfy Pants Day, Tuesday was Crazy Hat Day, Wednesday was Tie-Dye Day, Thursday was Eighties Day and Friday was Show Your School Spirit Day. This week was a great success and helped get everyone psyched for the Homecoming game on Friday.

Hard at work: Senior Rehanna Tallim documents the school pride and spirit of the many students involved in this years Spirit Week.

Smiling happy people! Crystal Ezman, Kelly LaLonde, Abbey Burke, Cheryl Roubian, Amber Larkin, Ray Tucker, and Alison Capponi "tie" together to get into the spirit of the week.

Clowning around! Crazy Hat Day was represented in full effect when these three got together. Alicia Taraszkiewicz, Stacey Russell, and Tia Damon were wild and "crazy" when it came to showing off their spirit.

Deck the halls! Pumpkins, squash, and gourds add a festive flavor to the halls of R.F.A. during Spirit Week.



Bow down to the seniors of '99! Seniors; Kristin Grasso, Lisa Brement, and Sara Carollo take time out of their busy day to represent the senior spirit.

Put on your thinking hats! Mr. Kunkel and Allison Ecung get a little help from their "crazy" hats during a hard day of physics.

HOMECOMING
AN AUTUMN EVENING

Homecoming is a time of the year when there is a lot going on and students get involved in the school by showing their school spirit. It was an action packed, busy week. The pep rally Friday afternoon got everyone in the spirit for the big game that night. The captains of each fall sport, along with their teams, were introduced. The homecoming court was also announced. At the game we crushed Auburn with a 42-13 win. On Saturday night there was a dance, "An Autumn Evening", which many students attended and everyone seemed to have a good time. It doesn't get any better than this.

All tired out: Senior Matthew Hills, juniors Kurt Loson and Melinda Ruiz, along with sophomore Kayla Fleet, and junior Anthony Richie are taking a rest after all that dancing at "An Autumn Evening".

Pull Harder! A group of juniors attempt to win in a game of tug-of-war. Judging by the determined looks on their faces, they certainly gave it a great effort.

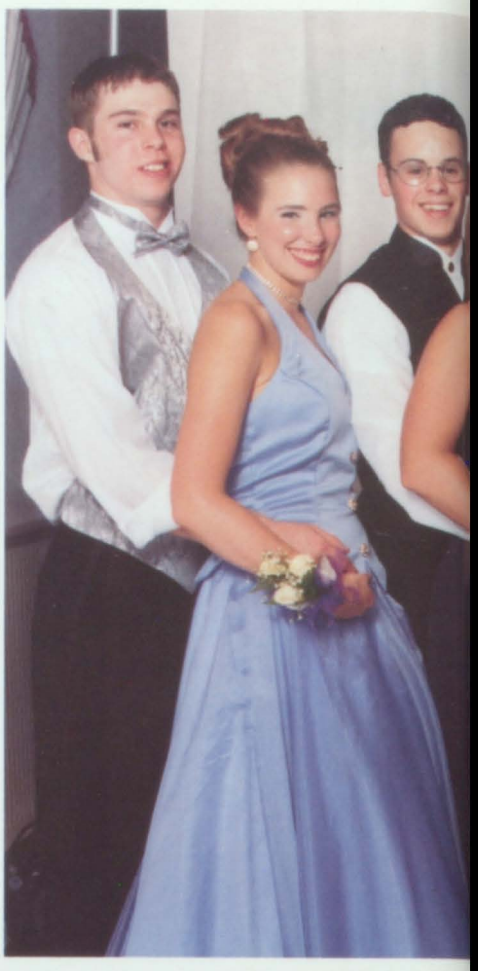
Everybody walk that dinosaur ... Seniors Rule!! The senior float took first place in the judging of the floats at the Homecoming game.

The great abs of RFA! Junior Todd Jackson just happens to be hanging around with junior Benjamin Lonsway, and seniors Derek Utter and Ian Tovar who show their school spirit at the pep rally by letting everyone know what team they are rooting for.

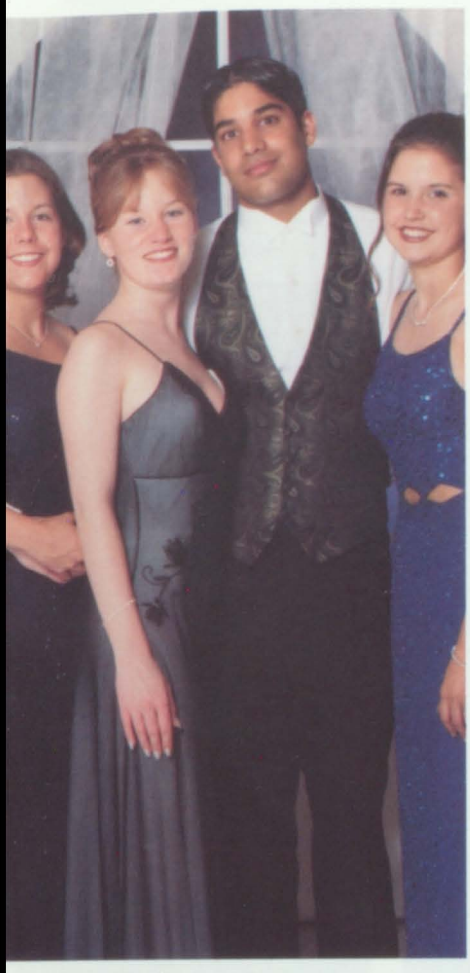
"WRITTEN IN THE STARS"



Our Special Night ... The Rome Free Academy Junior Prom was held at Harts Hill Inn on May 2nd, 1998. The prom started at 8:00 p.m. and ended at 12:00 a.m. The theme was "Written in the Stars" and the junior class worked very hard to put the whole thing together. The dancing was great and we thank Harts Hill Inn for the great atmosphere and food. Everyone looked his or her best that night and it seemed to go by so fast because everyone was having so much fun. When the prom finally came to an end, everyone went their separate ways, and the whole night was just a memory that no one in the junior class will ever forget.

Strike a pose!!! Seniors Desiree Genovese and Mike Tayefeh did just that; were you fooled?

What a blast! Seniors Brandi Smaldon, Sandra Woodman, Elizabeth Mance, JoAnne Benoit, Erin Brancato and John Melnick take time out of their busy dancing schedule to pose for a picture.



Friends forever! Bill Potter, Lauren Keller, Dave Paquette, Crystal Ezman, Veronica Powers, Kiran Ramenini, and Amber Harty take a picture that they will cherish forever.

Ever thought of a limo bus? Well, seniors Aaron Fiorini, Julie Zingerline, Kelly Washburn, Kristin Ciotti, Mike Destito, Stacey Russell, Dan Hale, Amy Sislo, Kevin Barry, Tricia Simpson, and Joe Corley did. It is the same as a limo but it accommodates more people. It is complete with the same features as a regular limo.

Hollywood! Seniors Adam Gibson and Molly Schlotterer are all decked out and ready to party.

Come a little closer! Seniors Lisa Brement, Corey DeGennaro, Elyse DeAngelo, and Kristen Grasso all snuggle up for the camera.

PEOPLE

Looking ahead ... Sophomores, Melissa Strife, Christie Spado, and Tina DeMatteo, attend the annual College Night to get a head start on their college search.

Here's

Chewbacca Hills? Senior Matt Hills takes some time to show off his skills by doing his "famous" impression of Chewie.

Hmmm ... Senior Jessica Rousseau wrestles with the idea of slurping up some school water.

Looking At You

Girls, girls, girls! Juniors Camielle Jadoo, Brianna Plasson, and Katie Wutsch, are all waiting patiently for their KNIGHTS in shining armor.

Strike a pose! Senior Wilfredo Rosario takes time out from his hard work to "vogue!"

Get me out of here! Sophomores Mary Lambert and Kelly Irvin make desperate calls to get out of their next class.

"There are no problems we cannot solve together, and very few we can solve by ourselves." -Lyndon B. Johnson

Throughout their senior year, the many dedicated members of Rome Free Academy's student government volunteer much of their time collaborating to organize enjoyable social activities for their peers. Many of these projects also benefit the community. The planning of these hard workers brought us the building of Homecoming floats for the pep rally and excitement of the semi-formal, the creation of coloring books for hospitalized children, the annual and very successful Red Cross Blood Drive, the donation of Thanksgiving and Christmas food baskets to needy families, the spirit-filled School Fair, and the extravagance of the Senior Ball. The aforementioned are only a few examples of numerous events that would not be possible without the enthusiasm of this extraordinary team. The senior class thanks you for helping us create many priceless memories, and making our last year here at the Academy everything we were expecting and more. Good luck to all in the next millennium!!!

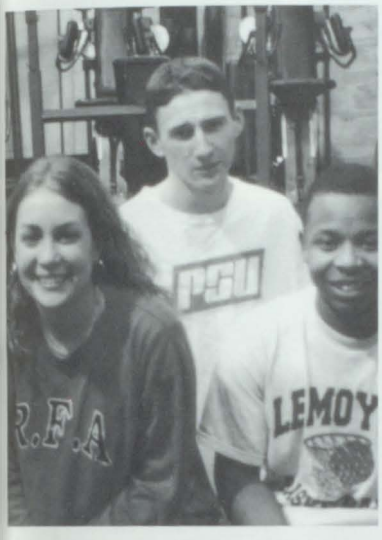
Kari Finn and Kelly Wilson just walk around the halls when they're supposed to be in class.

Brian Wright sits in class in a daydream like most of the students in 8th period.

Mrs. Calogero's 8th period class is very excited about learning Biology. They almost didn't have time to take this picture.



Marla Tarbania, Chris Wajda, and Clarence Turner look very interested in lifting weights.

Ms. Whitney talks to the sophomore class before they get ready to head out into the real world for Mentor Day.

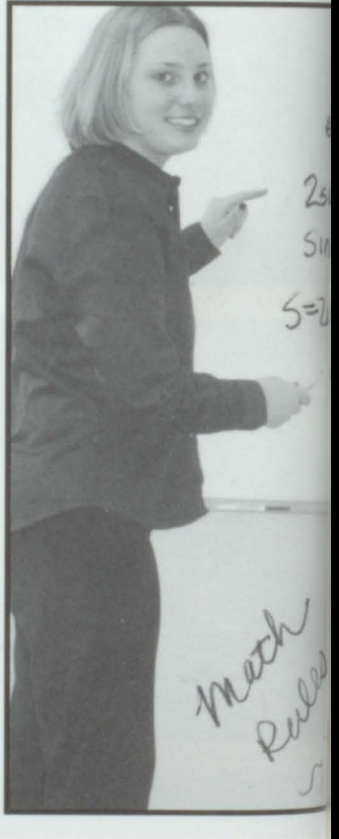
ACADEMICS

Scholastic excellence and achievement are emphasized at Rome Free Academy. This is demonstrated through course offerings, such as Advanced Placement, the Bridge program, and Project Advance. Students gifted in music and art are offered a wide variety of courses to meet their needs, as well. Home and Careers, technology, and BOCES provide students interested in specific occupations a rigorous field of study. RFA graduates are well prepared to enter the workforce or to go on to advanced fields of study.

Scholars

ROME FREE ACADEMY

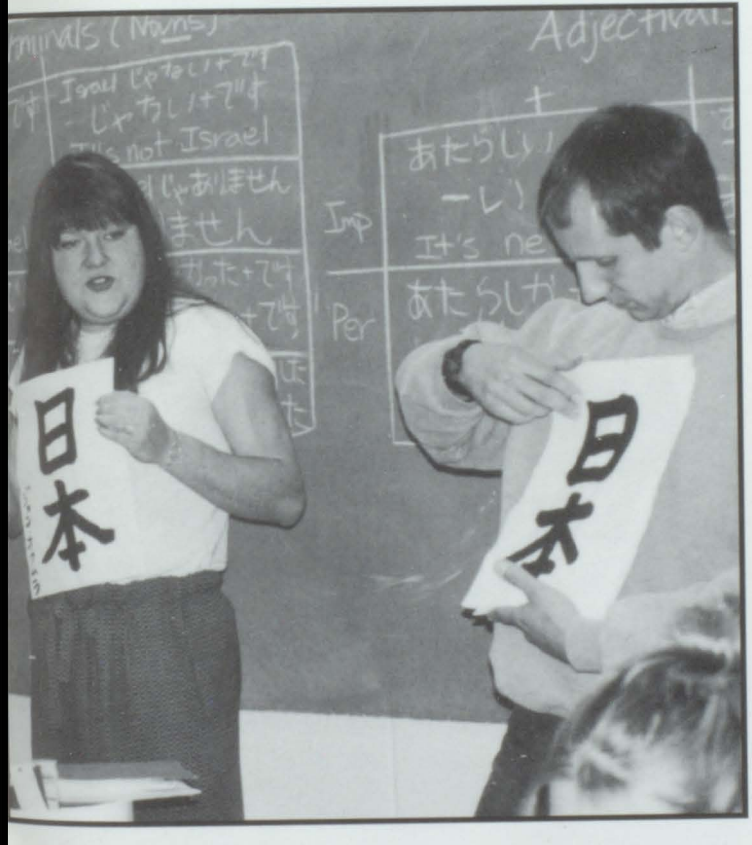
Card Catalogues Sure Have Changed. Librarian Cyndy Haley helps Holly Carey search the Internet to gather materials for her Spanish IV research report. Aren't computers great!

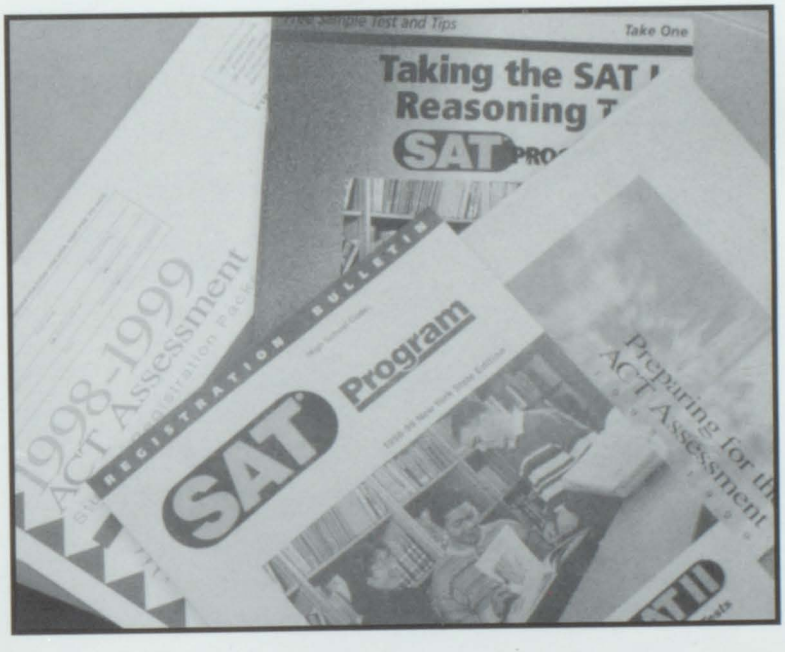


Pay Attention Class: Trigonometric equations are really easy, explains Jillian Veschusio to her Sequence III class. Unfortunately, not everyone agreed.

You're Certain This Won't Blow Up? Jim Rizio and Derek Smith are careful to protect those 'eyes on the top of their head', while conducting an important experiment in Chemistry class.

And The Winners Are: Art work by students Francis Simiele, Leah Taylor, and Tim Lambert will be on display in the new Rome Teachers Credit Union. Congratulations on being selected for this honor!





Now Class, Repeat After Me: Eastern Studies instructors, Lee Link and Frank Dudish, quiz the class on the pronunciation of these strange looking words. Our Japanese exchange student, Satomi Taniguchi, wouldn't have a problem with it.

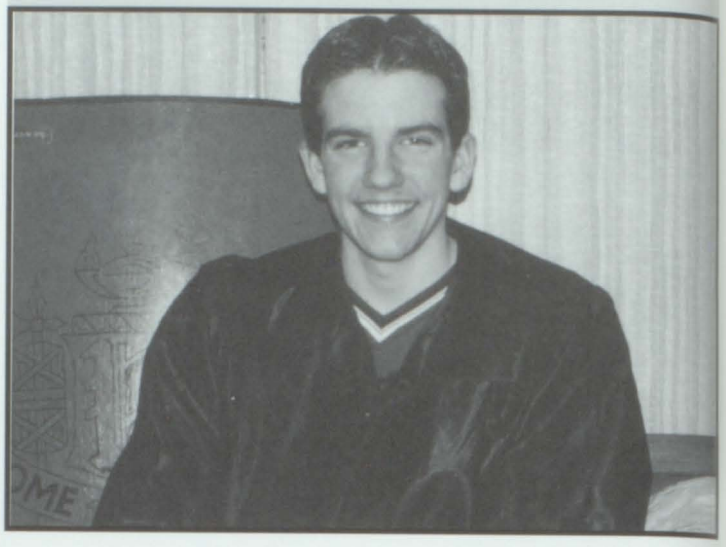
Oh, The Stress. Nothing evokes more terror in the hearts of juniors and seniors than the prospect of taking one of the standardized tests required by most colleges and universities.

ACADEMIC

VALEDICTORIAN

Timothy Leong, son of Peter and WaiLing Leong, plans to study engineering and medicine in college, hopefully, at George Washington University. Tim says he "just tried hard and was lucky that the super smart ones left with the base. He leaves us with this thought: "Like the little red engine that could, keep on pursuing your goals – success will come!"

SALUTATORIAN

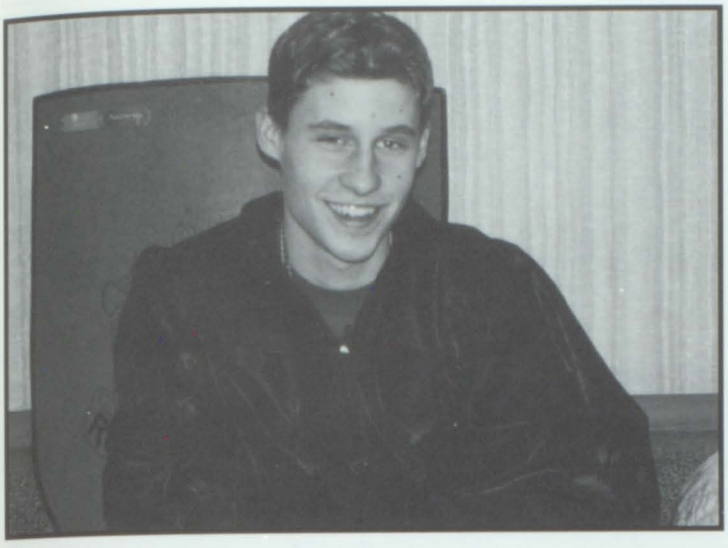


Timothy Stell, son of Doran and Deborah Stell, will pursue a degree in veterinary medicine in college. Tim states: "As STASS president, I have enjoyed becoming better friends with everyone. I also have enjoyed my involvement with both the band and the Red Cross Youth Corps."

Sara Elizabeth Adams, daughter of Thomas and Drinda Adams, hopes to attend either Geneseo or Cortland to study elementary education. Sara says that: "My experiences at RFA have helped me grow up happily. I have been stimulated academically, developed friendships to last a lifetime, and learned the values and rewards of responsibility. A lot of credit also goes to my supportive family."

Amanda Dixon, daughter of Joseph and Nancy Gugliemo, plans on attending Geneseo to study education and piano performance. Amanda leaves us with this thought, "There will be many different people playing minor roles in your life. Remember, however, that you are the key player; you live with yourself, and for yourself. Strive for nothing but your happiness."

LEADERS

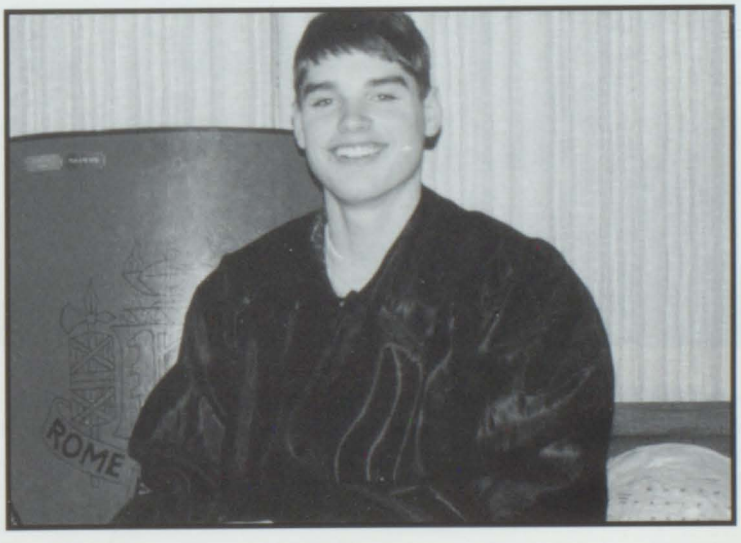


Nathan Fedors, son of Richard and Paula Fedors, plans to attend Bucknell University where he will study Biology and Chemistry. Nate leaves us with a quote by M. Twain: "...and so there ain't nothing more to write about, and I am rotten glad of it, because if I'd knowed what a trouble it is to get an education I wouldn't a tackled it and I ain't agoing no more. But I reckon I got to light out for college, because it's one big world out there."

Diana Pattington, daughter of Meader and Norma Pattington, will attend Drexel University to study Computer engineering. Diana says that: "My best experiences at RFA have been with the swim team and the Jazz band. Participating in these activities with others who shared my interest was really enjoyable."

Cheryl J. Roubian, daughter of Dr. Armen and Cindy Roubian, will study psychology at Nazareth College. Cheryl would like to be remembered as "the artistic swimmer", but she would also like people to remember her as a nice person and a true friend, because those are qualities that will never lose importance, no matter where she goes or what she does.

Mark Savery, son of Richard and Cathi Savery, plans to major in Chemical Engineering at Rensselaer Polytechnic Institute of Technology (RPI). Mark says that: "During my years here at RFA, I have tried to be a good role-model for younger students by setting an example of academic excellence, leadership, and good sportsmanship."



HONOR SOCIETY

In the spring of each year, high achieving juniors and seniors are inducted into the National Honor Society at Rome Free Academy. The ceremony has been performed ever since 1930. Service, scholarship, leadership, and character, are the four qualities that are considered for membership in this distinguished group. The members, under the guidance of Mr. Nickerson, concentrate on service for the school and organization of the initiation ceremony each year.

OFFICERS

The Leaders: Nate Fedors, treasurer, Veronica Powers, secretary, Patricia Simpson, vice-president, Cheryl Roubian, president.

Row 1: Sarah Previte, Patricia Simpson, Cheryl Roubian, Kristin Granacki, Stacey Russell. ACADEMIC SUCCESS

SAT

1300 Club - Senior Members. Nate Fedors, Mike Scerra, Cheryl Roubian, and Tim Stell get a much needed break after their outstanding performance on their Scholastic Aptitude Test. Other students who scored 1300 or higher on the SAT are: Brandon Heck, Tim Leong and Kenneth Rogriquez.

PSAT

1300 Club - Junior Members: Jacob Meiss and James Kullmann, (front) along with Rachael Hoke, Jake Taylor, and Melissa Rashford appear pleased with their performance on the Preliminary Scholastic Aptitude Test. Other students who scored 1300 or higher on the PSAT are: Erik Jacobson, Ryan Nutting, and Derek Smith

PRESIDENTIAL SCHOLARS

Congratulations Scholars! Colleges and Universities across the country offer the best and brightest high school students scholarships to attend their schools. The recipients, not only score in the top percentage of the class, but are involved in a variety of activities. Two of this years recipients are, above left, Lynette Brady, who will attend Elmira College and major in Psychology and, above right, Monica Haley, who will major in communications at Rochester Institute of Technology.

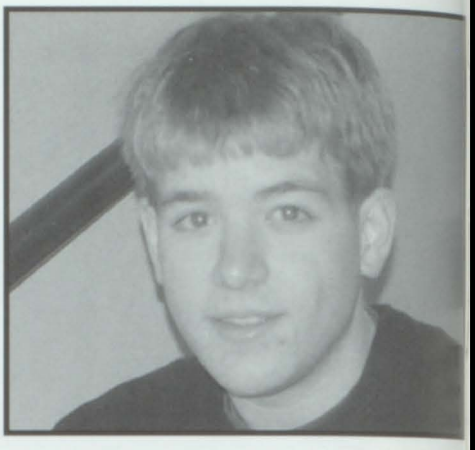
Teacher Recognition. RFA teachers nominated to receive this National Award for being a positive influence in their students' lives are, from left to right: Mr. Mickler, Ms. Cataldo, Ms. Dykens, Mr. Mazzaferro, Ms. Carrier, and Mr. Nickerson. Missing from the photo are: Mr. Carlson, Ms. DiMarco, Ms. Gallagher, Ms. Landau, and Ms. Sirni.

REGIONAL PROGRAM

The Regional Program for Excellence offers talented high school students the opportunity to participate in a mentorship program either during the year or during the summer. The programs offered are in technology, business, human services, fine arts, government, medicine, law, or science. Highly motivated students who maintain an 85 average in their field of interest are nominated by the faculty and must go through a selection process in order to participate. A few of the students selected this year are highlighted below.

Sean Arsenault is mentoring at Rome Memorial Hospital. He states that: "During my mentorship at the hospital I was able to explore various aspects of the medical field. It has been a fulfilling experience in helping me to decide about my future career."

Jamie Swetland was placed at the Rome Research Lab in the accounting department. Jamie says "the program has proved to be an educational experience and I know that it will help me with my future goals."



Justin Marchesani worked at the House of the Good Sheppard. His duties have included working with the public relations department, with the intention of allocating more foods for this charity organization.

Brycelyn Boardman mentored over the summer at the Rome Lab. Her experience allowed her to design and write a computer program that read and analyzed data taken from a fluidics chamber - a new piece of technology. She was the first person at the lab to work on the program for the chamber.

Jake Taylor worked over the summer at the Rome Hospital. While there, he rotated between eight different departments under the supervision of his mentor, Gale Barone.

Meghan Ruby mentored at the Elmer Hill Veterinary Clinic observing Dr. Richard Leskovar and helping in his office. She has seen and assisted in different surgeries, such as neuters and spays, tumor removal, and cat declaws. Meghan says that: "This experience has confirmed my thoughts of wanting to become a Veterinarian."

ART / MUSIC

The Winning Artists Are: Julie Dixon, with her art teacher Ms. Russell, and Russell LaPlante, with his art teacher Ms. Taylor display their award winning art. You exemplify the best that RFA has to offer congratulations.

ART COMPETITION

Rome Free Academy art students submitted their favorite pieces of art in the thirty second Central New York Regional Scholastic Art Competition. Students winning awards this year are Julia Dixon, Nick Gugliemo, Russell LaPlante, and Joe Patane.

These awards culminate an intensive year of studying photography, sculpture, advertising design, drawing and painting, and graphic art.

ORGANIZATIONS

The many organizations of Rome Free Academy play a large part in our extra-curricular activities. They allow students to create social events for their peers and make good use of extra time. Through organizations students are able to expand their horizons, meet new friends, and volunteer their services.

Spanish Club ... Rob Mastrangelo sits and sells candy grams as a fund raiser for the Spanish Club.

STASS ... Anna Burke and Kathryn Hovey take these two children for a ride in Santa's sleigh as an activity at the Holiday Happening.

Art Club ... Anthony Ritchie paints a mural at Betsy Ross Nursing Home as a project for Art Club.

Peer Leaders ... Justin Trificanna, Meghan Brost, Kathryn Hovey, Christina Viscelli, and Julie Smith help out with the cookie decorating contest at the Rome Art and Community Center.

Band ... The band practices before one of the home games so that they could blow the crowd away with their magnificent sound.

Peer Leaders ... As part of teacher appreciation day the peer leaders showed Ms. Whitney their appreciation by redecorating her office in their own style.

Government ... Bobby Page and Dan Carpenter man the voter registration table where they gave eligible students a chance to register for the upcoming elections.

Student Association

STASS is the organization of leaders that is responsible for many of the extracurricular events that the RFA student body participates in. Semi formals, Homecoming, the Winter Carnival, and the annual American Red Cross Blood Drive would not be possible without all the hard work of this dedicated group.

Lauren Keller and Shannon Beckwith, both STASS representatives, pose in front of a Winter Carnival sign. The velcro wall is one of the creative events that students decided to include in their carnival.

The Rome Free Academy Drama Club has had a busy year! Immediately after their first production of "Spoon River Anthology", they held auditions for "The Miracle Worker", and their performances of this drama in January received rave reviews. They continued to show their talent by performing a scene from "The Glass Managerie" at a local drama festival, and ended the year with the annual One Act plays.

Black History Club

The black history club promotes better relationships between students, by attempting to rid cultural barriers through education and understanding. Another aspect of the club is to learn about the past and present of black history it also promotes the preservation of the black culture.

Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.

Mock Trial

Mock Trial helps students to learn planning and team work. The participating students are taught how to properly debate on certain cases that they are given to research. Students go to tournaments throughout the state. Some of the goals of Mock Trial are to help understand the law, court procedures, and legal system. They learn this to help increase skills such as listening, speaking, reading, reasoning, and to heighten appreciation for academic studies as well as career consciousness for law related professions.

Speech And Debate

Speech and debate is a club formed by a group of students who are able to participate in competition with students across the state. This is an opportunity for them to voice themselves as speakers and readers. Three demanding qualities evident in these club members are courage, creativeness, and concentration. Because talk is not cheap, activities of this club include fun ways to create treasury of distinction.

Rachel Horton, Allison Ecung, Elizabeth Mance, Rosa Mejia

Chess Club

Clockwise from bottom left: Ryan Austie, Daniel Combs, Mr.Heller, and Kevin Thrasher

The chess club welcomes members of all levels, from novice to expert. The chess club can teach those interested in learning the game in a minute. Through playing games of chess, club members increase their skill and analytical thought.

SADD

Students against drunk driving is an organization of students who meet once every two weeks to educate others about the number one killer of teenagers, drinking and driving. SADD does not condone the consumption of alcohol by those below the legal drinking age. Students are encouraged to obey the laws governing the legal drinking age in New York State.

Teen AIDS Task Force

The Teen AIDS Task Force (TAFT) is formed by groups of students that want to make school, parents, and the community generally aware of the disease AIDS. These students have taken a training session in Syracuse to become a resource for others. They meet together on a monthly basis. They were established under the health advisor council of the Board of Education.

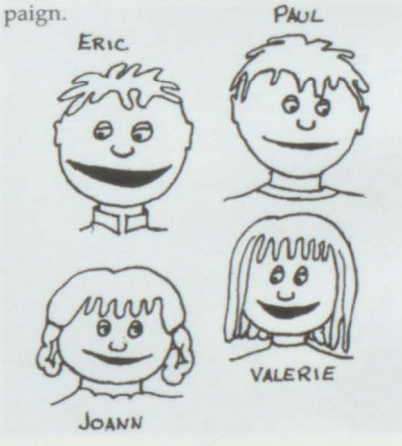
Popcorn/REACH/DARE

REACH stands for Responsible Eduated Adolescents Can Help (stop drugs). The RFA Popcorn/REACH Club visits local elementary students, educating them about drugs, their harmful affects, and how to "say no" when pressured. They use physically handicapped puppets as a way to demonstrate a drug free way of life and to get their point across to the young listeners. At the high school level the REACH Club is a promoter of the National Red Ribbon Campaign.



ROW 1: Nicole Sobrado, Elizabeth Mance, Desiree Genovese, Jennifer Richter, Laura Evans. ROW 2: Christina Viscelli, Mark Bahr, Ryan Elmer, Joselyn Ellis, Monica Haley, Meghan Brost.

BUSINESS

Thank You...

The Business Section of this yearbook is comprised of two sections; ads purchased by local businesses and senior tributes purchased by friends and relatives. Through these sales we are able to purchase the latest technology to bring the production of this book into the 21st century. Students will be able to have hands on experience with the use of digital photography, photo manipulation software, and computerized layout spreads.

Thanks to all of our loyal supporters - without your help none of this would be possible.

Best Wishes and Best of Luck

THE SAVOY

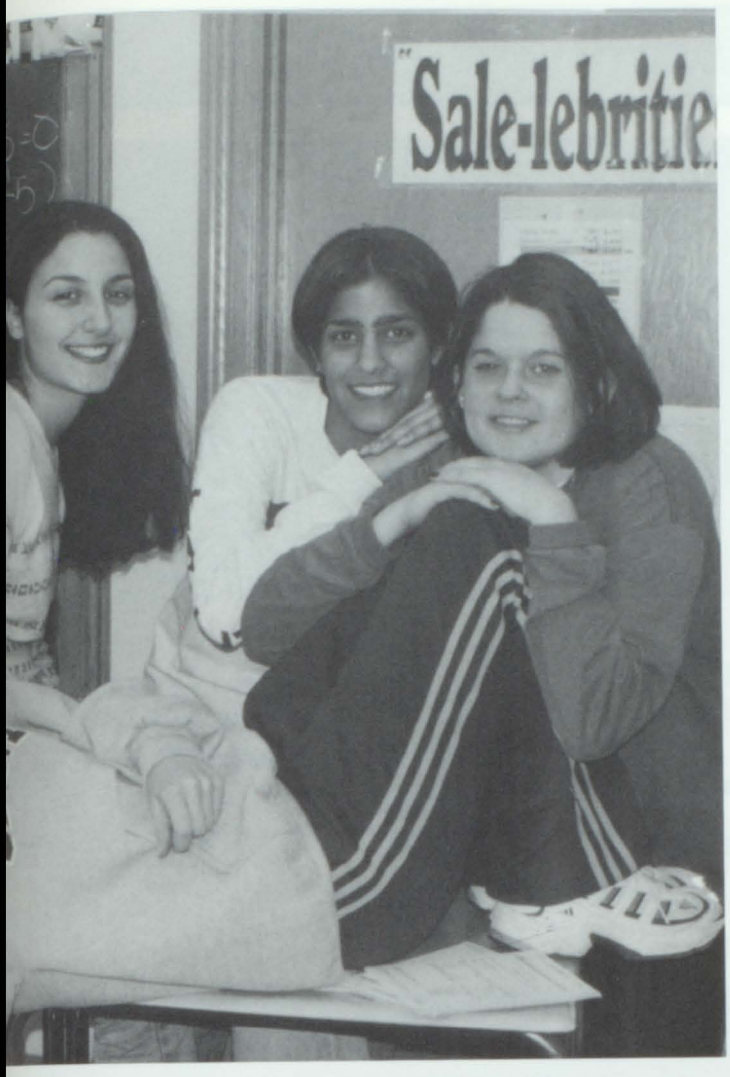
PAT, ROSIE, ORRIE

Looking Back. This ad appeared in the De-O-Wain-Sta 50 years ago. Thanks to the Destito family for their many years of loyal support! Their new ad appears on page 177 - check it out.

Business Editor. Jessi Mondrick looks relaxed, b during the school day she actively working on ad la outs.



Sale-lebrities. Nicole Palma, Sarah Previte, Rehanna Tallim, Amber Larkin, and Amy Sisilo are at the top of the list for ad sales this year. They all follow Amy's lead and take a much needed rest from all the pressure.

She's a TEN. Megan Destito was our top sales person, selling over $1000 in ads, a new RFA record! Megan practices her sales technique on her dad, Dr. John Destito- and, yes, he did agreed to purchase an ad.

Looking Forward to Success. Diane Cardello displays some of the products in her store, Cornucopia Candles. Although the business is new, Ms. Cardello graciously agreed to purchase an ad in this year's book.(see p.171). We wish her success in this new venture.

Kelly Washburn

To Our Kelly Coolee:

As you walk down your new path in life may it be as wonderful as the past 17 years you've given us. You are every mother's dream of a little girl and now a young lady.

You are a beautiful person in and out. Your accomplishments have been a great achievement and will be remembered always. We love you too, too much.

Love and kisses,

Mom, Mandy and Mike

Kristin Grasso

We've watched you grow from this small child into a caring, compassionate and accomplished young lady. Many moments of shared laughter, tears, love, and friendship will always be treasured. We are extremely lucky, thankful and proud to have you as our daughter.

We wish you happiness and success for your future.

Love,

Mom and Dad

Matt Makuch

Congratulations Matt !

I'm very proud of you. May all your dreams come true.

Love,

Mom

Brandi Smaldon

Brandi,

Congratulations!
We are so proud of you.

Love,

Mom, Dad, Ashley and Jamie

Jessi Spina

Jessi,

Remember always that you can do anything you set your mind to. We are very proud of you and will love you always.

Mom, Dad and Sara

David DeVincenzo

You made us very proud of you. We know you will succeed in whatever you do as you did in earning your Eagle award from Boy Scouts.

With much love,
Mom, Dad and Joe

Amanda Dixon

#1 IN OUR HEARTS FOREVER

We can't believe this time is here. You have grown from a beautiful baby into a wonderful young lady. Your accomplishments thus far have brought us nothing but pride. We know you will succeed at whatever you do. Remember, we are always there for you.

They definitely saved the best for last (1999)!

Love,
Mom and Dad

Butts/DeCristo/Kaczorowski

To Lick, Rudy and The Missing Link,

It was difficult to know what to say to you and just how to say it. Having considered and rejected witty, sentimental and even literary, I decided upon short and sweet.

Be happy. Have fun. Stay well. Keep safe and "To thine own self be true". (OK, so I didn't totally reject the literary.) You did it, guys and I am really proud of you. Watch out world! We are turning them loose.

Love,

"Mom"

P.S. Phone your poor old grey-haired "mother" once in a while. After all, we know who gave her those grey hairs, don't we.

Andrew DeCarolis

Andy,

Congratulations! You are a very special young man. We are very proud of you. We wish you the best of luck in whatever road you travel.

God bless you.

Love,

Dad, Mom and Bryan

Megan Carpenter

Megan,

We are so very proud of you. Best of luck in everything you do in the future.

Love,

Mom, Dad, and Mark

Kristin Granacki

Kristin,

Congratulations for accomplishing your goals. You have never deviated from them. You were always focused, dedicated, and determined. All our prayers go with you as you go confidently in the direction of your dreams, and live the life you've imagined.

Brycelyn Boardman

Tiny toes and bright blue eyes,
You entered our lives and changed our world.
A bundle of energy, you were constantly on the go
Flying from the balcony, zooming, and dancing up a storm.
Where did those days go?

Before we knew it, you climbed on that bus and began to make your way.
Those Lake Delta years were filled with great memories of that Close knit class and such great friendships that remain today.
From the theater at the Capitol to the elementary basketball courts
In pink shirts, your star began to shine.

Turn around and the Strough years burned brightly in your eyes.
Student council dances, and athletics became the center of your universe.
From field hockey to volleyball to basketball to softball,
The days were never long enough.
You grew as a student, an athlete, and a person to make us proud.

On to RFA for these precious three years, what a thrill to have you in class,
To celebrate, laugh, and cry with the wins and losses on the field.
A leader, a spokesperson, a generous friend;
You welcomed a foreign exchange student into your expanding world.
Nina, the Icelandic bombshell, will be a part of the person you've become

So, now you must move on again.
On to your next challenge,
As you follow your path into the future,
Remember you have touched many lives in your special way.
Be true to yourself and know you are loved.

Love,
Mom and Dad

Marty & Brian Morris

It seems like only yesterday that you were babies in our arms. Now you are graduating! It doesn't seem possible.

Marty - you will always be our special child. With you, God has truly given us a gift!!

Brian - We are so proud of you! As you pursue your career with the Marines know that our love and support go with you! May you find all that you are looking for.

All our love,
Mom and Dad

Justin A.C. Cianfrocco

You've come a long way! Success for you is inevitable. Your positive attitude and your drive makes you # 1. I am so proud that you're my son and of your accomplishments. Best of luck in your future!

Jess,

Though the sands of time do trickle by
You're still the twinkle in our eye.
You try so hard from day to day
in school, in work, and even play.

You came to us from the Lord above to raise, to cherish, and to love.
You have made us proud in every way.
We only hope that you can stay as strong and eager to learn and grow in school and life.

Remember, you and you alone have the power to take life to its fullest. Spread your wings and fly little turtle.

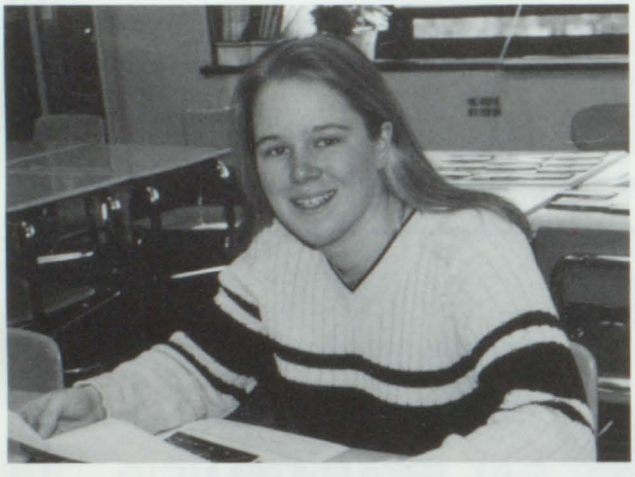
De-O-Wain-Sta (Yearbook)

Editor-in-Chief, Heather Cucura



Business Editor, Jessica Mondrick

This year, yearbook wasn't two class periods of fun and games. It never has been. This years staff has had to work extra hard to complete the pages of this book on time. Every day in room 201, there was a mountain of work to be done, whether it was drawing, designing, photography, writing, organizing, or typing. All of the members of our 11 person staff put in hours of hard work to meet deadlines on time.

We've got a lot of memories from this year, like how in the beginning of class every day, Mr. Mazz (and sometimes Mrs. Cataldo) would greet Jessica and Heather with "uhh, Heath...er, uh, Jessica? Which one are you?" It took them a few months, but they eventually got it straight. Poor Amy constantly had to draw layouts, everyday, and then they all got lost, so she had to do them all over...again...and again. It was always fun trying to identify people, and spend days tracking down someone who might recognize the guy in the back row...but then there's always the Book...our savior in spell-checking. One of these days, we'll find all of our missing pens...and books, pages, and pictures. Oh, Mr. Mazz? Are all the cookies gone? Please, just eat one more. Sarah sure she went and sold ads. Megan had her hands full trying to get together enough sports candids to fill the pages demands. Speaking of pages, it's really fun trying to design and finish a double page spread in two days. Such a challenge. And, we couldn't forget our elusive Verp. She got all her pages done.

Advisors, Mrs. Cataldo, Mr. Mazzaferro.

People have been looking at our school yearbooks to help them remember for over 50 years. But our innovations have been progressing steadily forward for a century, since we invented the first class rings. In fact, Jostens is part of the whole school experience from start to end, even supplying students with graduation products. And when you're looking back to even your earliest school portraits that represent you at every stage of your life, well, we were there then, too.

SPRING SPORTS '99

It's a first! The De-O-Wain-Sta will finally include the sport teams that are actually participating in this year's spring competitions. The yearbook's final deadline has always been completed well before the teams of the current spring season were selected. Consequently, the pictures for spring sports were from the previous year. Thanks to Coach Dewey Niemi, and the coaches for each team pictured, who organized quickly to meet the new extended deadline. Thanks also to our Jostens Rep, Bob Carper whose help was invaluable in making this happen.
